The Northeast Alabama Performance Breeders held their best bull sale to date on Saturday, February 7, 2015 at Cullman, Alabama. A tremendous crowd of buyers filled the auction barn at Cullman Stockyards to appraise the best set of bulls ever presented by this group.

Widows Creek Angus from Bridgeport, Alabama had seven of the top selling bulls. The highest being four flush brothers by AAR TenX out of a Sitz Upward dam. Those four bulls averaged $8,265.

Legacy Farms of Springville, Alabama had two bulls in the top ten best sellers with Claburn Farms of Boaz, Alabama and Buddy Phillips Angus Farm each had one in the top bulls selling for $6,000 or more. Dale Parris of Hillside Angus Farm does a great job heading up this progressive group of Angus breeders.
